In short, a mature, refined sense of self-awareness, within the context of biblical limits, is the foundation for a “mature” passion. A mature passion for another person may be likened to the passion we are to have for God (Isa. 58:2) – a passion infused with purity, holiness, and other-centeredness.

Purity and Passion | CBE

Passion for Purity. If you are anything like me, you don't want your children to make the same mistakes you did in your youth. When I look back over those years, I wish I could have a “do over.” As parents, I think we want to protect our children from those feelings as they become adults. I love the purity driven sermons, books, and ...
