The truth is, feeling good may be one of your motivations, but not because it's a healthy or universal one. If you developed a natural sense of Self in early childhood, the foundation for your self-identity is an unshakable inner knowing of who you are and who you're not, regardless of others' opinions.

While the decision in Roe v. Wade said that the Texas statutes — and those like them in other states — that limited abortion access were unconstitutional, the decision did not provide absolute guarantees to abortion. The decision noted that a fetus is not a person, only a "potential life." As such, the decision set up a framework restricting abortion to during times when the fetus is not viable outside of the womb.
