Kendra Summary - eNotes.com
The author was not playin' when she penned this novel. Teenagers are way more mature, way more knowledgeable these days and Coe Booth did not hold back when she wrote about the sexual experiences of her young characters. The things fourteen year old Kendra did really shocked and disgusted me.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Kendra
My second book, KENDRA, was published in 2008. For this novel I wanted to write about a girl trying to understand herself and her very complicated family, while experiencing her first relationship. I wanted to explore the truth of some relationships, one where you're not really sure what's going on until you've gone too far.

Coe Booth - Wikipedia
Now Kendra's fourteen, and her grandmother wants her mother to start playing a part in her life...especially when Kendra starts getting into trouble with boys. As she did in her debut novel, Tyrell, Coe Booth creates the vivid voice of a teen trying to find her place in the world—even though nothing...

Kendra: Amazon.co.uk: Booth, Coe: Books
Coe Booth often writes about friendships, family, and love. Urban books like Kendra, really put into perspective how environments effect life on a daily basis. I enjoyed reading this book because it shows how certain situations have a drastic impact on her growth as a young teen. Kendra's mom, Renee, had her at the age 14.
