One resource that I think is severely neglected in the witchcraft communities is the book The Satanic Witch written by none other than the infamous Anton LaVey. Now, like I said above, most witches want to stay as far away from the word "Satan" as possible to avoid the many misconceptions still held about witches. I can completely understand this.

Book Review: The Satanic Witch by Anton Lavey

I've owned a couple of copies of "The Satanic Witch" over the years. The title is exactly what the book's all about. Being a guy, I at first didn't realize Anton Lavey wrote it specifically for women, but it being another book by Anton Lavey, it was still very informative & insightful none the less.
